Federal Tort Claim Act U.S.C. 2676

CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINT BY A FEDERAL PRISONER

Demoné Coleman currently resides at U.S.P. Canaan, P.O. Box 300, Waymart, P.A. 18472. The plaintiff is acting in pro-se capacity and request that this claim be construed liberally under Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520, 92 S.Ct. 594, 30 L.Ed. 2d 652 (1972) also; Doolittle v. Holmes, 306 Fed Appx 133 (2009).

Introduction

This is a civil action being filed in compliance with the Federal Tort Claims Act 28 U.S.C. 2676-79. Before this act was federally created agency's could be sued for it's torts if Congress had given the agency power to "sue and be sued". Under FTCA, however;

[authority of any federal agency to sue or be sued in it's own name shall not be construed to authorize suits against such federal agency on claim which are cognizable under 28 U.S.C. 1346(b)]

Instead, the remedies provided by the FTCA are the exclusive remedy for claims that are cognizable under 28 U.S.C.A. 1346(b), which grants the federal district court jurisdiction over tort claims against the United States.

This action is being brought pursuant to the Federal Tort Claims Act under title 28 U.S.C. 2671 thru 2679.

Facts

The plaintiff listed above is currently residing at U.S.P. Canaan, P.O. Box 300, Waymart, P.A. 18472. The plaintiff has individually filed [i.e. exhausted remedy] standard 95 as required under FTCA.

The defendant, United States is being sued directly for negligence, negligence per se, wrongful acts or omission of any employee of the government while acting within the scope of his office or employment. Can be served at Office of General Counsel, Federal Bureau of Prisons, 320 First Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20530.

On or about June 25, 2011. Demone Coleman and other inmates not mentioned went to mainline and consumed a poultry product [i.e. chicken fajitas] that was spoiled and/or contaminated with "Salmonella Bacterial Poisoning." Demone Coleman and other inmates not mentioned ingested the Salmonella bacterail poison by way of chicken fajitas.

On or about June 26, 2011, Demone Coleman and other inmates not mentioned began to suffer excruciating pain and symptoms which included but were not limited to severe headaches, diarrhea, abdominal pains, nausea, chills, vomitting, inability to eat, and profuse sweating.

During the emergency lockdown, Demone Coleman was given Gatorade and two asprins "one time". However, waswstill being fed meals from the contaminated kitchen which made the sickness [Salmonella bacteria poison] re-enter the plaintiff's body after being provided with Gatorade and asprin.

The Health Inspector afterbbeing notified by Wayne Memorial Hospital, following CDC policies and/or regulations came to U.S.P. Canaan and closed the kitchen here until they sanitized the food service department and passed inspection.

Case 3:13-cv-01573-WJN-MCC Document 1 Filed 06/13/13 Page 53 of 611.
The institution at [U.S.P. Canaan] stayed on emergency lockdown and/or restrictive movement status from June 26, 2011 through July 13, 2011. The institution failed two inspection and fired approximately 150 inmates who worked in the kitchen and were also poisoned.

On or about July 11, 2011, the kitchen here passed it's third inspection and could now operate. On or about July 13, 2011, the kitchen held an orientation for the remaining 60 kitchen workers (inmates).

The plaintiff remained sick and disoriented during June 26, 2011 through July 13, 2011. The plaintiff was not requested to provide a stool sample [for culture testing] and/or blood test in order to diagnose properly the plaintiff's illness. However, if an inmate did in fact work in food service and contracted the Salmonella food poisoning, that inmate had to take a stool sample in order to be cleared to work for food service once again.

Salmonella poisoning, staff negligence, and deliberate refusal to treat plaintiff for symptoms

- 1) Under 18 U.S.C. 4041 & 4042(a)(2) the Bureau of Prisons has mandated duty to provide healthy and nutritious meals to all inmates here at U.S.P. Canaan.
- 2) On June 25, 2011, the B.O.P. was in breach of it's mandated duties under the policies and regulation implemented by Congress when they served the plaintiff and other inmates not mentioned, inadequate, spoiled and other wise unhealthy food.
